

Orpheus MUSIC FESTIVAL at SIMPSON COLLEGE

Orpheus Music Festival at Simpson College, located in Indianola, Iowa offers an exciting music festival experience for high school musicians including music theory and history and daily individual lessons. The festival also includes ensembles and workshop training for operetta and musical theatre.

The John and Faye Abild Music Scholarship in the amount of $350 each, sponsored by The National Federation of Music Clubs, is awarded to two students who are proficient in piano to attend the Orpheus Music Festival. All piano students who send in an audition tape or CD and the completed Orpheus application will be considered for the scholarships.

www.simpson.edu/music/camps/orpheus.html

THE 2011 WINNERS

Evan Schroeder, 17, pianist from Jefferson, Iowa
There was only one winner